Campers will get the chance to learn from current and former Waterloo Warriors women's basketball players! These excellent role-models provide leadership and instruction throughout the week's activities. Head Coach Tyler Slipp plans and implements the curriculum with help from his assistant coaches and student athletes. Campers will be grouped by age and skill level to promote appropriate learning. All week long camps include 5-6 hours of quality basketball instruction per day, 1 hour of swimming/pool time and a reversible University of Waterloo jersey.

YOUTH FUNDAMENTALS CAMP: $300

July 29th - August 2nd
Ages 7-13 - 9am - 4pm

Learn the skills and fundamentals essential for having fun and setting the foundation for excelling at basketball. Players will learn age-appropriate skills that will set them up for long term success in an environment that will enhance their love for the game. There will be an emphasis on fundamental movement, ball handling skills, passing, shooting and team play. You will leave with a smile and a better game!

BACK TO SCHOOL CAMP: $300

August 26th - August 30th
Ages 12-18 - 9am - 4pm

This camp is designed to get participants a competitive edge for their school team tryouts that come a few weeks later. Players will get fundamental skill work combined with enough scrimmage and games-approach drills to get a major head-start on the school season. Whether you are looking to play at the next level or make a bigger impact on your team, this camp will get you ready!

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT ONE-DAY CAMPS: $30 EACH

January 18th, February 18th, April 19th, May 31st
Ages 7-13 - 8:30am - 3:30pm

Use the day off from school to have fun and become a better basketball player! These single day camps are a great chance to stay active on a day off from school. Campers will be on the court for 5 hours of fun and games designed to make them better basketball players. There will be an emphasis on fundamental movement, ball handling skills, passing, shooting and team play. Also includes one hour of swimming and pizza lunch!
